Sir.

Not only have you relaxed the Delaney rules on pesticides, but you are about to legalize irradiated meat. Family farmers are in serious crisis. Maybe you are a baby boomer, but you have not been kind to our environment, or encouraged sustainable farming. On top of this, the FDA wants to obliterate the definition of "organic" in organic farming. Many countries will not even want to buy our genetically altered grains and vegetables.

As far as I am concerned, for all this, I will not remember you well. A baby boomer should know better.

Yours Truly,

Joanne Bergstrom 131 Cedar Ridge Dr. Port Matilda, Pa. 16870
